GRAND HIGH PRIEST RECOMMENDATION NO. 1

It has come to my attention that most Masonic suppliers are no longer carrying 16 X16 chapter aprons. The Regulation size for the District Deputy Apron has already been changed to reflect this and is 15 X 13. Therefore, I submit the following:

Art. B-142 (146) Clothing. The purpose of this article is merely to define the appropriate symbolic requisites of Grand Chapter clothing and regalia.

(1) The appropriate clothing of a Royal Arch Mason is a white Lambskin apron 16 x 16 inches with a triangular flap with a drop 6 inches deep. Both apron and flap to be bordered with scarlet silk velvet one inch wide. On the flap shall be triple tau cross within a triangle, and whole within a circle. No emblem or device shall be placed on the body of the apron. The apron and flap to be lined with quilted scarlet satin. Add the following: Aprons that are 15 X 13 are also authorized for use by Officers, Companions and Past High Priests.
